Detectives Release Photos of Assault Suspect

Release Date: June 20, 2007

San Diego County Crime Stoppers, working with San Diego Police Department Northern Division detectives, is seeking the public's assistance to identify and locate the suspect in an assault with a deadly weapon case.

On June 2, 2007, at approximately 0105 hours, two men argued while on the dance floor of Johnny V's located at 945 Garnet Avenue. During the argument, the suspect threw a glass bottle into the victim's face. After striking the victim, the suspect stood back and taunted him until two women he arrived with rushed him out of the bar.

The suspect is described as a Hispanic male, between twenty-one and twenty five years old, 5'6" to 5'8" tall and between 150 and 160 pounds. He had dark brown or black short spiky hair and long sideburns. The suspect was wearing a light colored button down shirt with blue jeans. He was in the company of two women, both in their twenties with long blond hair. Still photos of the suspect and his two companions are attached to this case.

Detectives are looking for information on the identity of the suspect and his two female companions. Anyone with information on this case can call the Crime Stoppers anonymous tip line at (888) 580-TIPS; they can also call Northern Division directly at (858) 552-1700. Crime Stoppers is offering up to a $1,000 reward to anyone with information that leads to the arrest of this suspect. Collect calls are accepted and callers may remain anonymous.
